Presentation by Alternative Radio founder, David Barsamian, speaking about his most recent collection of interviews, Targeting Iran (Open Media).

Founder and director of Alternative Radio, David Barsamian, will be talking about his most recent collection of interviews, TARGETING IRAN (Open Media), at 7:00PM on Monday, October 22, at the SEIU Local 49 Union Hall at 3536 SE 26th Avenue in Portland. Admission is free. Please call 503-344-5078 for more information.

As the United States stands on the brink of initiating war on Iran, the publication of David Barsamian's TARGETING IRAN, a collection of interviews with Noam Chomsky, Ervand Abrahamian and Nahid Mozaffari, could not have come at a better time. David Barsamian's Alternative Radio award-winning lecture series continues to bring critical perspectives to the airwaves throughout the US. He was named one of the "Top Ten Media Heroes" by the Institute for Alternative Journalism and received the ACLU's prestigious Upton Sinclair Award for independent journalism in 2003. David's visit to Portland is co-sponsored by KBOO 90.7FM Community Radio and the Portland Peaceful Response Coalition and is endorsed by the American Iranian Friendship Council, Peace & Justice Works, Jews for Global Justice, Physicians for Social Responsibility, Jewish Voice for Peace (Portland Affiliate), Lutherans for Justice in the Holy Land - A Witness of Central Lutheran Church, Americans United for Palestinian Human Rights and others.
